What is the difference between Elder and Adult Protection?
Criminal v. Civil

- Criminal
  - Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968 25 U.S.C. limits incarceration of Indian Defendants, and no jurisdiction over non-Indians
  - Beyond a reasonable doubt

- Civil
  - Jurisdiction over non-Indians
  - Preponderance of the Evidence
WHAT IS AN ELDER?
Depending on Native Nations traditions

Most Nations have set the minimum age 55
Provisions

002.0 AUTHORITY

[Cite all relevant sections of Tribe or Nation's constitution, charter or governing documents that grant the Tribe or Nation's legislature or lawmaking body the authority to enact laws prohibiting and regulating conduct, and imposing penalties upon all persons within the jurisdiction of the Tribe or Nation]

003.0 POLICY

It is the policy of the [Tribe or Nation] to continue the traditional respect the members of the [Tribe or Nation] have had for elders. Elders are a valuable resource to the [Tribe or Nation] because they are repositories and custodians of tribal history, language, culture and tradition; and, they are the best hope of the [Tribe or Nation] to pass on the tribal history, language, culture, and tradition to children of the [Tribe or Nation]. Thus, the interests of the [Tribe or Nation], now and in the future, are advanced when its Elders can be confident they are protected from abuse, neglect, and exploitation and are free to fully participate in the activities and proceedings of the [Tribe or Nation].
Definitions

What is:
- Physical
- Sexual
- Emotional
- Exploitation
- Neglect
Caregiver

Who is a caregiver?

- a person who is required by tribal law or custom (or state or federal law) to provide services or resources to an elder;

- a person who has voluntarily undertaken to provide care or resources to an elder;

- an institution or agency which voluntarily provides or is required by tribal law or custom (state or federal law, or tribal-state agreement) to provide services or resources to an elder; or,

- an employee of any institution or agency specified within this code.
Mandated Reporters

- Teachers, principals, and other school personnel
- Physicians, nurses, and other health-care workers
- Counselors, therapists, and other mental health professionals
- Child care providers
- Medical examiners or coroners
- Law enforcement officers
- Other persons obligated under the law

BUT your code must require that people report abuse!!
Duty of Care & Reporting

- What are duties of care and reporting?

- Ex. Fort Peck: Any person knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect that an adult is or has been abused shall report such abuse to the Adult Protection Team or to the appropriate law enforcement agency the agency shall immediately notify the APT
006.0  MANDATORY ARREST AUTHORITY

An officer shall arrest and take into custody person(s) whom the officer has probable cause to believe abused/neglected a person defined as an “elder.” No warrant is required to make an arrest. This mandatory arrest provision means that the victimized not sign a complaint for an arrest to occur. Further, an officer may arrest under probable cause even though it may be against the express wishes of the victim.

Mandatory arrest is required when:

- The victim is injured;
- The use of threatened use of a weapon is involved;
- The violation of a valid restraining order; or
- Imminent danger through abuse or neglect of a victim

Any person arrested under this provision shall be held without bail, in custody for a period of [forty-eight (48) hours] as a mandatory “cooling off” period in the best interest of the [Tribe or Nation]
Protection Orders

008.0  EMERGENCY PROTECTION ORDER

The [tribal court] shall issue an emergency protection order authorizing protective services or protective placement on an emergency basis upon petition supported by clear and convincing evidence that:

- the elder is at risk of immediate (physical) harm;
- the elder is incapacitated and cannot consent to protective services;
- the person possessing power of attorney for the elder is unavailable, or there is no one authorized by law or court order to give consent on an emergency basis; and an emergency exists.
